Ongoing Projects:

Jal Jeevan Mission:

Implemented Support Agency (ISA) Under Jal Jeevan Mission Programme

Launched on August 15, 2019, by the Hon'ble Prime Minister of India, the Jal Jeevan Mission aims to ensure the provision of adequate and safe drinking water to every rural household. The programme mandates a minimum supply of 55 litres of potable water per person per day, as prescribed by BIS 10500:2012, to be delivered through a functional household tap connection.

The mission, implemented under a Central–State partnership framework, seeks to provide tap water connections to all rural households within five years of its launch. In Uttar Pradesh, it is envisioned that every household will receive safe and adequate drinking water through an individual tap connection by 2024.

Udaan Society was appointed as the Implementation Support Agency (ISA) by the State Water and Sanitation Mission, Government of Uttar Pradesh, in 2021. The Jal

Jeevan Mission is being implemented across the state with the support of the Ministry of Jal Shakti, Government of India.

Under this mission, Udaan Society has been entrusted with the responsibility of conducting community awareness and social mobilization activities across 228 Gram Panchayats in Aligarh District and 319 Gram Panchayats in Bulandshahr District, Uttar Pradesh.

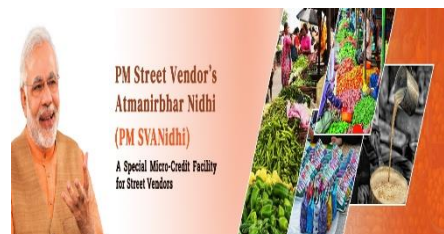

Atal Bhujal Yojana:

The Atal Bhujal Yojana, launched on 25 December 2019 on the birth anniversary of former Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee, is a central-sector groundwater management scheme of the Ministry of Jal Shakti with an outlay of INR 6,000 crore, aiming to ensure sustainable groundwater use in the seven water-stressed states of India through community participation, data-driven planning, and institutional strengthening. Under this programme, Udaan Society has been appointed as the District Implementation Partner (DIP) for Banda District, Uttar Pradesh, where it is leading extensive community engagement and technical interventions. As part of the DIGI Project and Atal Bhujal Yojana activities, Udaan Society has successfully completed line listing and GPS mapping of all groundwater resources, preparation of Water Security Plans, and wide-scale social mobilization and awareness generation on the importance of water, sustainable usage practices, and the urgent need for water conservation to ensure the long-term survival and wellbeing of human life.

PM Street Vendor's Aatma Nirbhar Nidhi yojana :

Udaan Society was appointed as an Implementation Agency by the District Urban Development Agency (DUDA) under the PM SVANidhi Scheme for Zone-2 of Aligarh Nagar Nigam in June 2021. Recognizing the consistent quality of work and effective field implementation by Udaan Society, DUDA subsequently extended the Society's mandate to cover the entire jurisdiction of the Nagar Nigam. Under this assignment, Udaan Society has achieved significant progress, including the facilitation of micro-financing for more than 6,000 street vendors, enabling them to access loans ranging from ₹10,000 to ₹50,000 through various banks operating within the Nagar Nigam area. Additionally, the Society has successfully supported and onboarded over 6,000 vendors into the scheme, ensuring their linkage with formal financial systems and promoting improved livelihood opportunities.

Operation and Management of Shelter Homes:

Udaan Society is responsible for the operation and management of three Shelter Homes located in Banda, Mahoba, and Shikohabad, assigned by the State Urban Development Agency (SUDA), Uttar Pradesh. These shelter homes have been constructed under the Shelter for Urban Homeless (SUH) component of the Deendayal

Antyodaya Yojana – National Urban Livelihoods Mission (DAY-NULM), a flagship programme of the Government of India aimed at providing safe, dignified, and secure accommodation for urban homeless populations. Udaan Society ensures effective day-to-day management of these facilities, including provision of essential services, hygiene and sanitation maintenance, counselling support, and linkage of beneficiaries with social welfare schemes. Through its on-ground efforts, the Society continues to strengthen social protection systems and improve the quality of life for vulnerable urban communities.

Days and Events Celebrated

World Environment day:

Environmental Protection Pledge Administered to Villagers under Jal Jeevan Mission on World Environment Day

On 5 June 2024, in accordance with the directions of the State Government, World Environment Day was observed under the Jal Jeevan Mission – Har Ghar Nal Yojana in various Gram Panchayats of Aligarh district. The program was organized by Udaan Society, the Implementation Support Agency appointed by the State Government for the Jal Jeevan Mission in Aligarh district, with the active support of the Gram Panchayat–level Village Water and Sanitation Committees (VWSCs).

While sharing details of the program, Dr. Gyanendra Mishra, President of Udaan Society, informed that during the World Environment Conference organized by the United Nations General Assembly in 1972, it was resolved to launch a global mass movement to control the adverse impacts on the environment worldwide. As a result, World Environment Day was first celebrated on 5 June 1974. Since then, 5 June has been observed every year across the world as World Environment Day. The objective of observing this day is to create awareness among communities about environmental degradation caused by indiscriminate tree felling and increasing pollution, and to seek active participation of local communities in controlling these challenges.

Providing further information about the program, Mr. Rakesh Kumar, Director of the organization, stated that on this occasion, three teams of Udaan Society organized World Environment Day activities in Gram Panchayats Bhojpur Garhiya and Tejpur of Jawan Development Block, and in Gram Panchayats Ghasipur, Eshanpur, and Nayawas Narendra Garhi of Dhanipur Development Block.

The program was attended by the respective Gram Pradhans—Mrs. Ekta Devi (Bhojpur Garhiya), Mr. Viresh Kumar (Pradhan Representative, Tejpur), Dr. Mufeed Alvi (Ghasipur), Mr. Mohammad Naushad (Eshanpur), and Mr. Lajja Ram (Nayawas Narendra Garhi)—along with Panchayat Secretaries, members of the Village Water and Sanitation Committees, and women trained in the use of Field Testing Kits.

During the program, the community members were sensitized about environmental protection, with special emphasis on drinking water conservation. Participants were administered a pledge for environmental protection. Keeping in view the extreme summer conditions, the community resolved to undertake large-scale plantation activities during the upcoming monsoon season. To symbolize this commitment, saplings were also planted during the event.

The programs organized in Gram Panchayats Bhojpur Garhiya and Tejpur were observed by Mr. Shafique Haider, ISA Coordinator, and Mr. Ratneesh Chaudhary, CB&T Coordinator, from the District Programme Management Unit (DPMU) of the Jal Jeevan Mission.

The successful organization of the program was made possible through the significant efforts of Mr. Dinesh Kumar, Block Coordinator, and Ms. Sulekha Singh, Field Coordinator, of Udaan Society.

International Child Labour Prohibition Day:

On 12 June 2024, on the occasion of International Child Labour Prohibition Day, an awareness programme and discussion meeting was jointly organized by the Labour Department, District Probation Office, Udaan Society, and other social organizations at the Office of the Deputy Labour Commissioner, Japan House, Marris Road, Aligarh at 11:00 AM. The programme was chaired by Mr. Sher Singh, Assistant Labour Commissioner, Aligarh, who highlighted the significance of the day and emphasized that preventing child labour is a collective social responsibility and essential for the education and welfare of children, as they are the future of the nation. Mr. Subhash Chand, Labour Enforcement Officer, Aligarh, informed that as per the directions of the National Commission for Protection of Child Rights, New Delhi, a special district-level campaign is being conducted in June to identify and rescue child labourers. He shared that during the financial year 2023–24, 90 child and adolescent labourers were identified in Aligarh district, and legal action was taken against employers involved in hazardous and non-hazardous activities, resulting in a penalty recovery of INR 5,50,000 and the deposit of INR 1,60,000 through recovery certificates into the Child Labour Eradication District Committee account. He further added that during the financial year

2024–25, 25 child and adolescent labourers have been identified so far, show-cause notices have been issued, prosecution cases filed against seven employers, and recovery certificate proceedings initiated against two employers. Mr. Gyanendra Mishra, President of Udaan Society, stated that the International Labour Organization began observing this day in 2002 and that the theme for this year is "Let's act on our commitments: End Child Labour," aimed at highlighting child labour issues and prohibiting the employment of children below 14 years of age in mines, factories, and other occupations.

International Yoga Day:

On 21 June 2024, on the occasion of the 10th International Yoga Day, a Yoga Day programme was organized at the Masoodabad Roadways Bus Stand under the joint aegis of the Uttar Pradesh State Road Transport Corporation, Aligarh, The Art of Living, and Udaan Society. Yoga instructor Anju Aggarwal from The Art of Living conducted a yoga session for the officials and employees at the bus station and introduced them to the Sudarshan Kriya propounded by the founder of The Art of Living, Sri Sri Ravi Shankar. The programme was inaugurated with the welcome of the yoga instructor by the Chief General Manager (Technical), Mr. Shyamlal Sharma. Addressing the gathering, Mr. Sharma highlighted the importance of yoga, especially for roadways drivers and conductors who work under stressful conditions. Service Manager, Aligarh, Mr. Vinay Kumar appealed to all employees to practice yoga daily, while Assistant Regional Manager, Aligarh, Mr. Chini Prasad informed that this year International Yoga Day is being celebrated worldwide on the theme "Yoga for Self and Society." The programme was attended by senior officials and staff members along with representatives of Udaan Society, and concluded with a vote of thanks to Anju Aggarwal by presenting her with a picture of Lord Shri Ram.

National Girl Child Day:

On the occasion of National Girl Child Day, UDAAN Society organized a cultural programme under the Shiksha Plus Programme at Talib Nagar Gram Panchayat. Girls presented cultural performances on themes such as patriotism, education, health, and gender equality, with a street play on the dowry system being the main highlight. The programme was inaugurated by Dharmendra Singh, Village Head Representative, and attended by several dignitaries who praised the girls' performances and pledged to promote girls' empowerment and eradicate social evils. Gyanendra Mishra, President of UDAAN Society, emphasized the role of such programmes in bringing positive social change, while Rakesh Kumar, Shiksha Plus Programme Coordinator, shared details of the initiative supported by the Shiv Nadar Foundation, which aims to spread education among people above 15 years of age in Talib Nagar, Satha, and Nagaula villages of Jawan Block.

Deepawali Celebrations at UDAAN Society:

On the occasion of Deepawali, UDAAN Society celebrated the festival with a meaningful initiative focused on education and community development. A special programme was organized at the UDAAN Society office, during which LCD projectors and laptops were distributed to the dedicated volunteers of the Shiksha Plus Initiative, supported by the Shiv Nadar Foundation.

These educational tools will support volunteers in delivering quality learning to children and communities in the villages of Satha, Nagaula, and Talibnagar of Jawan Block, Aligarh. The initiative aims to strengthen educational outreach and promote learning opportunities in underserved areas.

Through this celebration, UDAAN Society reaffirmed its commitment to spreading knowledge, hope, and opportunities, working towards a brighter and more empowered future for uneducated communities.

International Women's Day:

On the occasion of International Women's Day 2025, 8 March, 2025, UDAAN Society, the state-appointed Implementation Support Agency under the Jal Jeevan Mission in Aligarh district, organized a special programme at Talibnagar Gram Panchayat, Jawan Block. The event was chaired by the Gram Pradhan, with Ms. Sarita, SHO Godha Police Station, as Chief Guest and Mr. Shabbir Haider, ISA Consultant (DPMU), as Guest of Honour.

The programme saw active participation of Jal Sakhis from Talibnagar, Satha, and Nagaula, along with rural women. Dr. Gyanendra Mishra, President, UDAAN Society, highlighted the crucial role of women in water management and shared that 50% representation of women has been ensured in village-level Water and Sanitation Committees. Ms. Sarita emphasized the growing participation of women across all sectors, while Mr. Shabbir Haider spoke about drinking water quality monitoring and informed that trained Jal Sakhis are regularly testing water using field testing kits, which were also distributed during the event.

The programme concluded with Mr. Rakesh Kumar, Director, UDAAN Society, thanking all participants and appealing to women to actively contribute towards social welfare, with special support acknowledged from Mr. Dharmendra Singh, Gram Pradhan Representative.

International Women's Day 2025 Celebrated with Shiksha Plus Staff; One-Day Training on the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 Conducted

On the occasion of International Women's Day 2025, the district's leading social organization UDAAN Society organized a special ceremony with all its employees working under the Shiksha Plus Programme at Talibnagar Gram Panchayat Headquarters in Jawan Block. The programme was held in the gracious presence of Ms. Sarita, Station House Officer, Godha Police Station, as the Chief Guest, and Mr. Dharmendra Singh, Gram Pradhan Representative.

The event was attended by Shiksha Plus staff working in Talibnagar, Satha, and Nagaula gram panchayats, along with other officers and staff members of UDAAN Society. While addressing the women present on the occasion, Dr. Gyanendra Mishra, President of UDAAN Society, stated that women have had to struggle for a long time to gain equal opportunities with men. Although women's participation and acceptance in society have increased significantly, the struggle for complete equality still continues. To encourage and strengthen this struggle globally, International Women's Day is observed every year on 8 March by member nations of the United Nations.

During the ceremony, women participants shared their personal experiences related to dignity, equality, and the challenges they have faced, and several became emotionally overwhelmed. Addressing the gathering after listening to these experiences, Chief Guest Ms. Sarita encouraged women to continue their efforts with dedication and determination. She emphasized that women's participation is increasing in every field, including police, administration, defence services, and sports at both national and international levels, proving that women are in no way less capable than men.

On this occasion, the Programme Reference Coordinator of Shiksha Plus informed that with the financial and technical support of the Shiv Nadar Foundation, a literacy programme is being implemented in three gram panchayats of Jawan Block for illiterate persons above the age of 15 years. Currently, 23 community educators are running 76 batches, benefiting 1,246 learners, of whom 1,182 are women and 87 are men. Women who joined the literacy programme at an advanced age were also honoured during the event.

Following the ceremony, a one-day training session on the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 was organized for all Shiksha Plus staff. The training was conducted by Ms. Neelam Saini, member of the District-level Internal Complaints Committee and subject expert, who provided comprehensive information on the Act through PowerPoint presentations and videos.

The successful organization of the entire programme was made possible with the significant participation and support of Nasir Ali, Dolly Hans, Lalit Kumar, and Pavitra Devi.

Other Significant Activities:

1. Participated as a panelist in an expert consultation focused on building a working definition of rural development in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. The panel discussion aimed to develop a context-specific and practical understanding of rural development to inform policy and planning processes. The session witnessed valuable contributions from diverse development professionals, including Dr. Gyanendra Mishra, President of UDAAN Society, whose insights enriched the deliberations and strengthened the conceptual framework for rural development.

2.As the President of an UDAAN society and an active social worker in the legal field, he was featured as the 'Celebrity of the Week' on Rapid Current Radio Station.

3. Free Eye Check-up Camp Organized under Shiksha Plus Project:

28 February 2025 – UDAAN Society, under its Shiksha Plus Project, organized a free eye check-up camp at Saatha Gram Panchayat in Jawan Development Block with the support of Lt. Colonel Nitin Bhatia Memorial Trust. While sharing details, Dr. Gyanendra Mishra, President of UDAAN Society, stated that with financial assistance from Shiv Nadar Foundation, similar camps were organized for students enrolled in the literacy programs of Shiksha Plus Project and their family members in three gram panchayats of Jawan Development Block – Saatha, Nagoula, and Talibnagar.

Dr. Mishra further mentioned that during this camp, 108 people underwent free eye check-ups, free spectacles were distributed, and 36 cataract patients were identified. These identified patients will also receive free eye surgeries at well-known private hospitals in Aligarh.

Rakesh Kumar, Resource Coordinator of the Shiksha Plus Program, shared that currently 23 community instructors have been appointed in these villages, and using laptops and projectors, 90-day CMS classes are being conducted for a total of 1,250 illiterate individuals across 67 batches. Upon successful completion of the course, these learners will receive literacy certificates. By September 2025, the program aims to make a total of 3,000 illiterate individuals literate under this initiative.

The successful implementation of this camp was made possible with the valuable support of Gram Pradhan Smt. Omvati Devi, Shri Vinod Kumar, Lt. Colonel Nitin Bhatia Memorial Trust representatives Ruchi Saxena, Sadhana Singh, and Bhavna, as well as field coordinators Nasir Ali and Dolly Hans, and community instructors Kaushalendra, Gayatri Devi, Puneet Chauhan, Kalpana Rana, Rukmini, and Komal.

4. Udaan Society has been actively engaged in supporting the Mid-Day Meal Programme in District ETAH, ensuring the timely and hygienic provision of nutritious meals to school-going children. Under this initiative, the Society oversees meal preparation, quality assurance, and efficient distribution in accordance with government norms and food safety standards. Udaan Society's involvement has strengthened school nutrition services by maintaining strict hygiene protocols, monitoring delivery systems, and ensuring that children receive balanced meals essential for their health, growth, and learning outcomes. Through this intervention, the Society contributes to improved school attendance, reduced classroom hunger, and enhanced educational performance among children from vulnerable and low-income communities.

5. Shiksha Plus Programme – Felicitation Ceremony

On 07 April 2024, Udaan Society, with support from the Shiv Nadar Foundation, organized a felicitation and certificate distribution ceremony at the Jawan Block Auditorium for newly literate adult learners under the Shiksha Plus Programme. The event was inaugurated by Block Pramukh Harendra Singh and Project Head Vijay Anand Verma. They appreciated the initiative for helping the Gram Panchayats of Nagola, Satha, and Talibnagar move towards full literacy and encouraged learners to continue their education.

Mr. Verma shared that the programme has enabled over 1.5 lakh people to become literate across Uttar Pradesh, with a target of 3,000 learners in Aligarh this year. Cultural performances by children highlighted the importance of education, while learners like Sunita from Nagola shared inspiring personal experiences of empowerment through literacy.

Key officials, including ADO Panchayat, BEO, and Gram Pradhan representatives, addressed the gathering. Udaan Society President Gyanendra Mishra welcomed all guests, and the event concluded with participation from programme instructors and community members.

6. Skill Training at Udaan Society

Udaan Society conducts structured skill-development training programmes aimed at enhancing the employability and economic independence of youth, women, and marginalized communities. These trainings focus on practical, market-oriented skills such as computer literacy, tailoring and stitching, beauty and wellness, entrepreneurship development, and digital financial literacy. Through experienced trainers, hands-on sessions, and regular assessments, participants gain the confidence and competence needed to pursue sustainable livelihood opportunities. Udaan Society also facilitates linkages with government schemes, job placements, and self-employment avenues, ensuring that trainees can apply their skills effectively and improve their socio-economic conditions.

Awards and Recognition:

UDAAN Society honoured at Swachhta Hi Seva 2024:

On 2nd October 2024, UDAAN Society, a leading social organization of the district, was honoured at the Swachhta Hi Seva 2024 fortnight closing ceremony organized by the Panchayati Raj Department at Habitat Center. The award for outstanding contribution was presented by Cabinet Minister Shri Laxmi Narayan Chaudhary, in the presence of BJP National Vice President & MLC Tariq Anwar, MLC Rishipal Singh, BJP District President Krishanpal Singh, District Magistrate Vishakh Ji, and CDO Prakhar Singh.

Receiving the award on behalf of the organization were Dr. Gyanendra Mishra (President) and Rakesh Kumar (Director). Dr. Mishra highlighted that UDAAN Society, as an Implementation Support Agency under the Jal Jeevan Mission (Har Ghar Jal), works across 328 gram panchayats to promote proper use and maintenance of drinking water and raise awareness on sanitation.

During the Swachhta Hi Seva fortnight, UDAAN Society's team conducted awareness activities in multiple gram panchayats, educating villagers on personal, domestic, and community hygiene, promoting reuse of waste water for kitchen gardens, and encouraging creative use of household waste. Women from the villages displayed products made from waste at exhibition stalls, which were commended by the minister and other dignitaries.

Honoured as SVEEP Icon on National Voters' Day:

On the occasion of National Voters' Day, Mr. Gyanendra Mishra, President of UDAAN Society, was honored as a SVEEP Icon by District Magistrate Sanjeev Ranjan. He received this recognition for his outstanding contribution to promoting voter awareness and strengthening democratic processes in society.

The event was organized by the District Election Office, and other prominent members of the district also participated.

On this occasion, Gyanendra Mishra stated, "This honor is not just mine, but belongs to all those who supported me in this campaign. Voter awareness is a national duty, and we must remain conscious of our rights and responsibilities."

Representatives from various social organizations and educational institutions also attended the program and shared their views.

Internship Programme:

Udaan Society runs a structured internship programme that attracts students from colleges and universities across the country. The programme offers opportunities for learners from diverse domains such as web and app development, social media communication, digital marketing, content creation, research, and community engagement. Interns gain hands-on experience by working on live projects, contributing to social-development initiatives, and applying their academic knowledge in real-world settings. The programme is designed to enhance practical skills, promote innovation, and build professional readiness while allowing students to support meaningful social impact. Through mentorship, regular guidance, and performance-based tasks, Udaan Society provides an enriching learning environment that helps interns grow personally and professionally.
